Mr. George A. Fisher
Clerk, U.S. Court of Appeals for the D.C. Circuit
U.S. Courthouse
Room 5423
3rd & Constitution Avenue, N.W.
Washington, D.C. 20530

Re: Julius Hobson, et al. v. Jerry Wilson, et al. (D.C. Cir.) No. 82-2159, 2160, 2221, 2226, 2227

Dear Mr. Fisher:

This action is scheduled for oral argument in this Court on January 23, 1984, before Judges Edwards, Scalia, and Starr. Among the issues presented on appeal is whether the District Court properly granted certain claims of state secret privilege formally asserted by Director of Central Intelligence and the Attorney General.

In connection with each formal claim of privilege an in camera exhibit was submitted to the District Court. Following its ruling on the claims, the Court sealed the exhibits and returned them to the Department of Justice for safekeeping.

Counsel for Appellees, Cross-Appellants, has asked me to make arrangements to ensure that the Panel will have access to the in camera exhibits should they desire to examine them for purposes of their deliberations in this case. Accordingly, I have caused the in camera exhibits to be placed in the black, two-drawer safe, No. 104635, in the vault in room 1800, the Courtroom Division of the Office of the Clerk for the United States District Court. The materials are identified as In Camera Exhibits A, B, C, D, and G, the in camera exhibit accompanying the claim of informant privilege by the Attorney General, and the in camera exhibit accompanying the claim of state secret privilege by the Director of Central Intelligence.

For purposes of maintaining strictest security, the combination to this safe has limited distribution. As has been done previously in matters of this sort, we will provide the combination to the judges on the Panel but not to any persons on their staffs. It is our wish that only the judges examine the state secret materials. The informant materials are, of course, confidential and should be handled in a secure fashion, but we have no objection to the judges allowing access to those persons on their staff whose assistance the judges may require in reviewing the claim of informant privilege.

If any member of the Panel desires any assistance in gaining access to the materials and in resecuring them following their examination, I am available at the Department of Justice, 633-4269, or Mr. Lee Strickland of the Office of General Counsel, Central Intelligence Agency, can be called at 351-6928.

I understand that this procedure has previously been used and is generally deemed acceptable to this Court. Please advise me if for any reason the Court desires that different arrangements be made.

Sincerely,

DAVID H. WHITE
Trial Attorney
Federal Programs Branch
Civil Division

The FBI asked that basically the jury's verdict be ignored, saying that if FBI officials can be sued for carrying out their "Official duties" it could have a chilling effect on the entire FBI. (Let's hope so.)

But the U.S. Court of Appeals has now denied all motions for rehearing. That means the appeal is over -- as of August 17, 1984. That means that anyone wishing to apply for cert to the U.S. Supreme Court must do so within 90 days of August 17th. I doubt the government will and we do not feel it would be fruitful for Sam, Abe or Reggie to try but if any of them want to, they should get in touch with me or Mort Stavis right away.

What will happen next is that we will go back to Judge Oberdorfer and see what we can agree upon in terms of a reduced amount of money to be awarded the remaining successful plaintiffs from the FBI. I have not yet been told when Judge Oberdorfer will want to meet with the lawyers; I suspect he will call us in some time soon after the 90 days has run out.

I am dividing my time between New York City (where I work out of the Southside Community Mission trying to stop deportations of Salvadorans) and D.C. If I am not here in D.C. and you want to reach me, try 212-387-3803 which is Southside Mission.

Protesters Deny 'Red' Charges

By Paul W. Valentine
Washington Post Staff Writer

The major coordinating organization for a mass antiwar march and rally planned here for April 24 denied charges yesterday by Rep. Richard H. Ichord (D-Mo.) that it is dominated by Communist and Socialist influence.

Ichord is trying to discredit the antiwar movement on the eve of the demonstrations with "witch hunting attacks ... characteristic of the 1950 McCarthy period," Jerry Gordon, one of five coordinators of the National Peace Action Coalition (NPAC), told a press conference.

"He's making us out as a radical coalition. We're not," Gordon said. "Sure, we've got radicals in the coalition, but we also have liberals and conservatives."

He said NPAC policies have been adopted and officers elected at periodic open conventions. "The whole procedure is completely democratic," he said.

Ichord is chairman of the House Internal Security Committee. He charged on April 6 that both NPAC and the Peoples Coalition for Peace and Justice, another antiwar group planning militant actions here including civil disobedience between April 24 and May 8, are "known to be operating under substantial Communist influence." The Peoples Coalition has not responded to the charges.

Noting that a number of senators and congressmen have publicly endorsed the NPAC demonstrations, Ichord said, "I wonder if my colleagues are prepared to accept the chaos which these antiwar groups are proposing to unleash."

Ichord claimed that NPAC was an organizational outgrowth of a conference last June in Cleveland held by the Trotskyite Socialist Workers Party, its youth arm, the Young Socialist Alliance and the YSA-dominated Student Mobilization Committee.

NPAC's single purpose, Ichord said, was to organize massive rallies and marches against the war.

He said four of its five coordinators are "affiliated" with the Socialist Workers Party and that its steering committee "includes representatives of several organizations that are dominated by the Socialist Workers Party" or YSA. The party's definition of socialism includes the concept of world-wide revolution.

PROTEST, From B1

Ichord named Fred Halstead, Donald Gurewitz and Carol Lipman as Socialist Workers Party members who serve on the NPAC steering committee.

Halstead, who ran on the Socialist Workers Party ticket in the 1968 presidential election, is handling NPAC logistics and marshal training. Gurewitz and Miss Lipman are both officials of Student Mobilization, a constituent member of NPAC.

NPAC officials said only one NPAC coordinator, Gurewitz, is a Socialist Workers Party member. The other four, Ruth Gage-Colby, James Lafferty, John T. Williams and Jerry Gordon, are not "affiliated" with the party in any formal sense as suggested by Ichord, they said.

NPAC spokesmen also contend that the organization's steering committee, which has about 150 members, consists not only of assorted Socialists but also of a broad range of conventional Democrats, Republicans and politically unaffiliated persons.

They note that NPAC has the broadly-based backing of various labor unions, churches and other groups, none of which advocate violence or revolution. NPAC's April 24 march and rally also have been repeatedly advertised as lawful actions, as distinct from the planned civil disobedience of the Peoples Coalition.

A total of eight senators and 23 congressmen so far have publicly endorsed the NPAC march and rally. All are Democrats.

The senators are Mike Gravel (Alaska), Philip Hart (Mich.), Vance Hartke (Ind.), George McGovern (S.D.), John Tunney (Calif.), Edmund Muskie (Maine), Harrison A. Williams Jr. (N.J.) and Harold Hughes (Iowa).

The congressmen are Bella [illegible] (N.Y.), Herman Badillo (N.Y.), Jonathan Bingham (N.Y.), Phillip Burton (Calif.), John Conyers Jr. (Mich.), Ronald Dellums (Calif.), John Dow (N.Y.), [illegible] Harrington [illegible], Patsy Mink (Hawaii), [illegible] Mitchell (Md.), Charles Rangel (N.Y.), Benjamin Rosenthal (N.Y.), William Ryan (N.Y.), James Scheuer (N.Y.), Louis Stokes (Ohio), [illegible] Vanik (Ohio), [illegible] Waldie (Calif.), [illegible] Yates (Ill.).
